

---

Welcome Statement to parents:

“I am ready and willing to inspire these great minds to reach their fullest potential. As a computer teacher, I will teach them the necessary computer skills that will enable them to adapt and excel in this fast paced technological world.”

Mr.A.T. Duarte

---

Course Description:

Computer Basics: This course is designed to lay the foundation of computer knowledge. First, it will cover the history of the computer along with the current ever changing technological advancements associated in the faced paced computer world. Secondly, this course will enable the student to utilize the computer in order to enhance their education and meet the demands of the business world. In all, Computer Basics will educate to view computer more than a means of entertainment, rather as a vital tool for education and their eventual careers.

Computer Programming: This course is designed to instruct the student the essential knowledge to perform computer programming. First, the student will learn about BASIC programming in order to create real computer programs. Secondly, the student will understand how a computer program works and the proper implementation. In all, Computer Programming will enable the student to use and create computer programs in order to enhance their computer knowledge and skills.

---